Treasury bills: H6, W260 - fixed report combinations

Difference in mean elementary quantile score; negative values favor the combination.

Classification uses all unique breakpoints with integer event signs; display curves are subsampled.

Matched constituents in the original-primary source/window context. Post-result / exploratory.