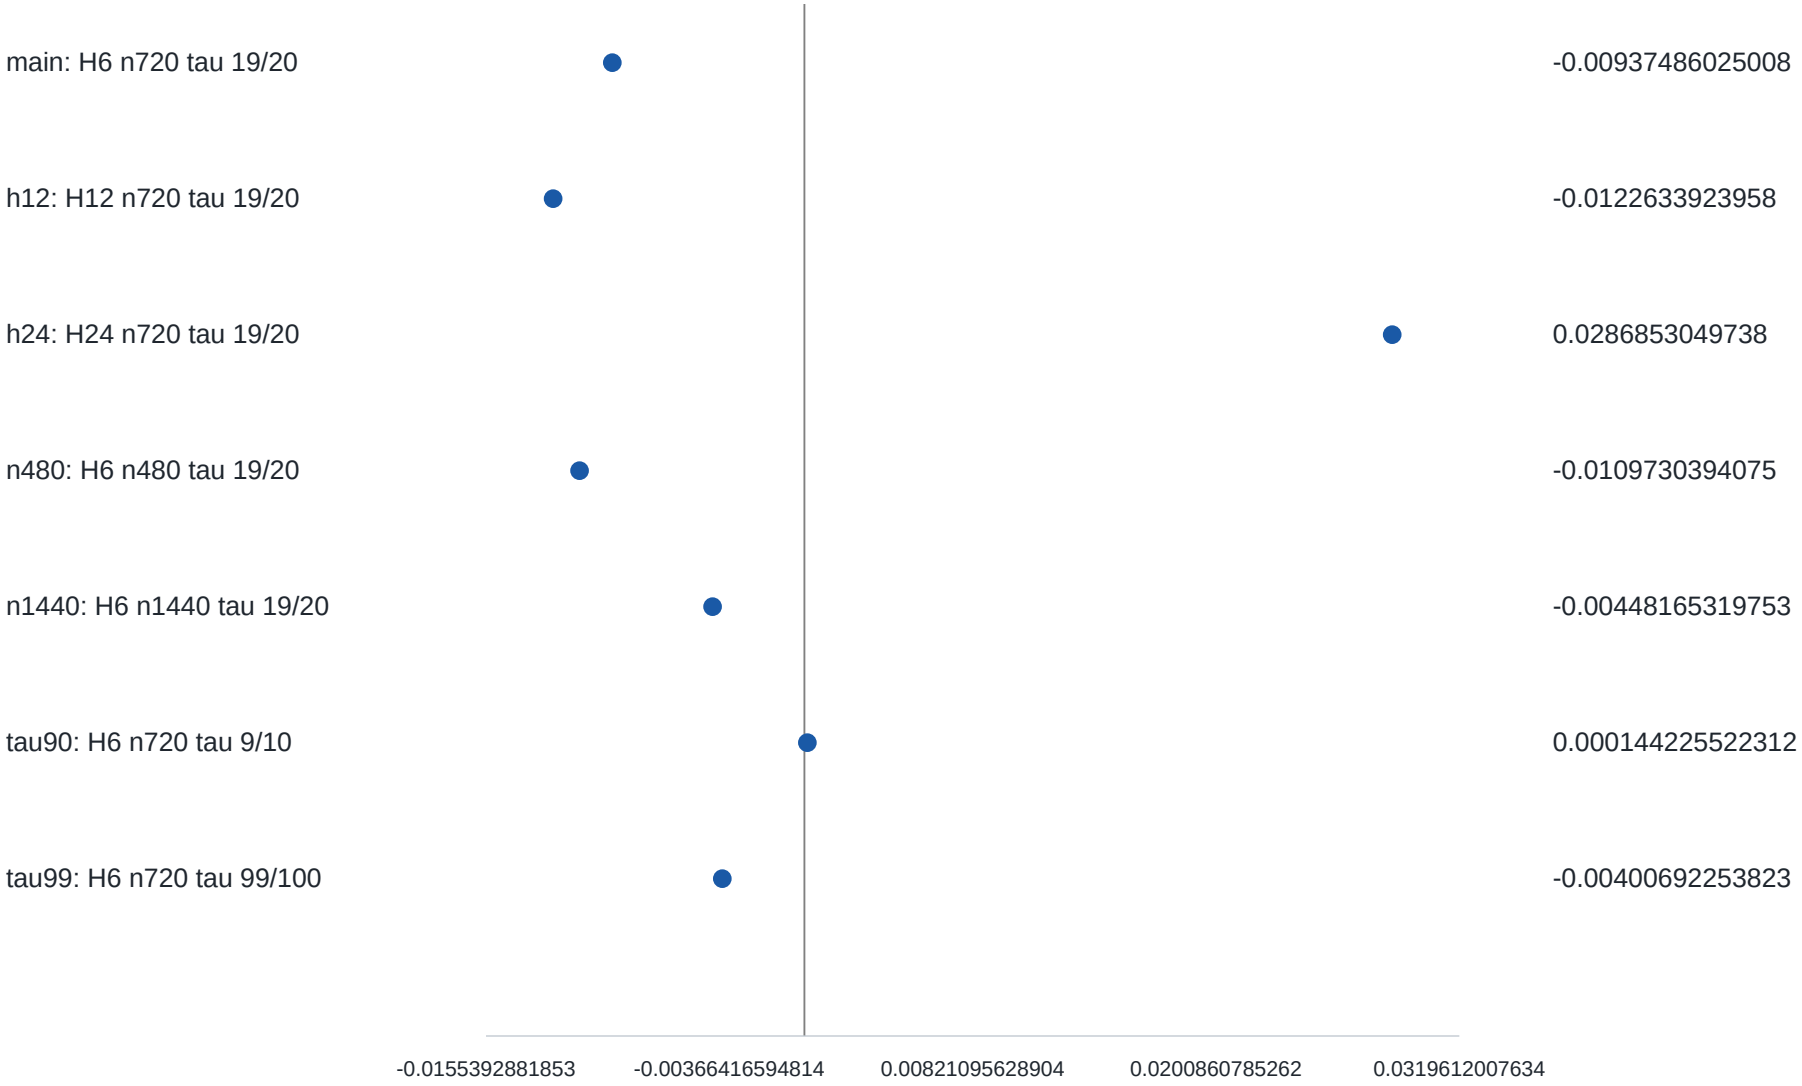
Within-cell paired mean loss differences

F minus S; USD millions. Negative values favor F within the same fixed cell.



Seven declared cells in fixed order; no comparison of raw losses across different tau objectives.

Points are finite-record paired means; the zero line is descriptive, not an inferential threshold.